YOU'RE INVITED.

Palm Bay is about to launch as Australia's island retreat destination for yoga and holistic health specialist's. Here in Palm Bay we have created a retreat space that is designed to both facilitate and actively promote teacher trainings, intensives and retreats and we are so excited to share our bohemian jewel in the heart of the picturesque Whitsunday's.

Palm Bay is an intimate cul-de-sac in its own private cove that we arrive to by boat. Our accommodation reflects the ultimate beachfront escape, dotted with a series of intimate private Burre's, bungalow's and cabins all decorated to reflect the tranquillity and calm of the great barrier reef.

On the beach, our yoga pavilion is a dreamscape rarely experienced in Australia, right on the sand overlooking the waves with the sun rising over the islands. Wandering through the tropical landscaped gardens we enter the Buddha Bungalow where music and relaxation combine with a space that accommodates an

We have a breakout room for lecture's, documentaries or smaller group workshops and a day spa studio where we offer the choice of resident massage therapy or your own practitioner's.

Our resident chefs are raw and green living trained and draws culinary inspiration from our ethos of organic, wild, colourful, nutritious and seasonal produce. We have a Juice and Super Smoothie bar onsite for the duration of your retreat and can work with you to create menu plans to suit your group and purpose.

Additionally, the private pool and spa, day beds, reading lounge and yoga boutique create an energy that is unparalleled and incredibly intimate.

During your down time guests can explore the island, with our national park walking trails, kayaking, snorkeling and turtle spotting! Additionally the reading room lends itself to inspiring literature and each bungalow offers a terrace and hammock for rest and rejuvenation.

We have established Palm Bay as your own private escape. No roads, no distractions, no noise, simply the lapping sounds of the waves and the tropical birds to harmonise with your own retreat destination.

SECURE YOUR NEXT RETREAT.

Palm Bay online will go live on December 1st together with media launch campaign and has been positioned strategically to ensure international reach and presence. As part of this very exciting event, we invite you to secure your next retreat at Palm Bay and offer a very unique opportunity.

As our launch gift to retreat vendors, we will showcase and promote your retreat on our major reach website, together with our print media and advertising campaigns that will be drawing attention for 2014.

With links to your booking and registration we will create a visual profile as well as PDF link to your promotional flyer, expanding your reach to our international database. Additionally we will be employing social media to promote your retreat, studio and teachers and will be showcasing PALM bay at some very exciting national and international events along with your own retreat and our calendar of events.

At Palm Bay we want to support yoga and wellness practitioners in advancing their reach and scope to markets outside and otherwise inaccessible. We want to let people know who you are and what you are teaching in the yoga and wellness industry and we have a vested interest in promoting your retreat to broader and international markets, actively engaging external databases outside of your immediate location.

This is an incredible to engage in what we consider a collaborative approach to supporting and promoting Yoga Practitioners and retreat spaces in Australia and we look forward to creating your next uniquely beautiful, Australian wellness event.
